AUTHENTIC OXFORD...

THE OXFORD COLLECTION®

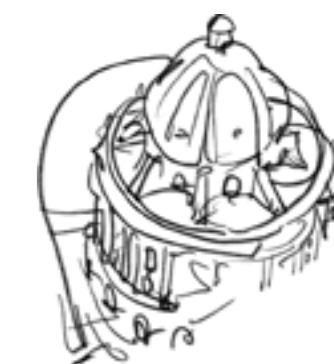

‘The Oxford Collection’ is an independently owned collection of two five-star plus luxury hotels and three stunning restaurants, all in central Oxford.

Both hotels; the Old Bank and Old Parsonage, are situated in historic landmark buildings within easy reach of the most popular attractions in the city centre. Along with complimentary parking and guest bicycles, a genuine, warm welcome awaits you.

Our restaurants: Quod, Gees and Parsonage Grill, are Oxford’s most popular destinations for visitors to the city and locals alike. Serving breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner, ingredients are locally sourced where possible, expertly prepared, and beautifully presented.

Each venue also offers private dining and event spaces.

The space maximises its central location on Oxford's High Street. Large arched windows reveal an inspiring view of All Souls College, with the Radcliffe Camera and Bodleian Libraries steps away. Inside, the blush-pink walls are paired with modern art, including British photographer Paddy Summerfield's 1968-1978 'The Oxford Pictures'.

With English oak-panelled walls and an original skylight, the Boardroom offers a discreet space in central Oxford for hosting private meetings, formal dinners and small groups of up to eight. Located on the ground floor of Old Bank Hotel the room is well-equipped for corporate hospitality.

- THE TIMES ON GEES RESTAURANT & BAR

gees restaurant & bar

Gees Restaurant is set within Oxford's famous Grade II listed Victorian conservatory built in 1897, and today serves a distinctly Mediterranean-inspired menu. A ten-minute walk from Oxford's city centre, it sits adjacent to the exclusive private dining space, 'Gees Gallery' and the 'Secret Garden' terrace.

gees gallery

Adjacent to our famous Victorian glasshouse on North Oxford's Banbury Road, this stunning private room offers a simple, modern, and airy ambiance. The space upholds an authentic and organic feel, with bare stone walls, oak panelling and a flash of rich green marble.

Spacious and light-filled, Gees Gallery features a unique and evolving art collection, state-of-the-art video and conferencing equipment, and its own private bar. Designed for versatility, it effortlessly accommodates a wide range of events, from private dining lunches and dinners to wedding receptions, graduation celebrations, birthday parties, meetings & conferences, or uniquely tailored events. A variety of seating options are available.

exclusive hire gees restaurant

A showcase of 19th-century architecture and food that carries the warmth of the Mediterranean sun, you can enjoy sole use of Gees, its grounds and team of skilled waiters and chefs on selective dates throughout the year. Privacy is guaranteed for illustrious parties, dinners and corporate hospitality events, with nearby accommodation.

North Oxford's notable glasshouse restaurant accommodates up to 80 for weddings and private dining, with the freedom to spill out on the tree-edged Secret Garden terrace for arrival and post-event refreshments. Next door, Gees Gallery is a blank canvas for accompanying or standalone receptions and events.
